PROCEDURE:

1. Assessing and selecting applicants for acceptance into the residency program:
 - A. To be eligible for the PSPH residency position, the applicants must complete the following by December 29th:

1. Pharmacy Online Residency Centralized Application Service (PhORCAS) Application
 - a. A letter of general introduction and interest, stating reasons for applying to PSPH.
 - b. An updated resume or curriculum vitae.
 - c. Three letters of professional reference.
 - d. One copy of college transcripts.
 2. A completed on-line PSPH employee application (After match results are posted).
- B. Residency Advisory Council members review applications and provide objective scores to pre-screen candidates.
1. Both the residency director and the Advisory Council determine the list of applicants to be offered interviews.
 2. The Residency Advisory Council is made up of at minimum the Pharmacy Director, Pharmacy Operations Manager, two residency preceptors, and current residents, as appropriate.
- C. The residency director is responsible for contacting the applicants and setting up the interview schedule.
- D. The interview process involves participation of the Residency Advisory Council.
1. The interview process also involves a tour with the current resident and allows informal exchange of information.
- E. The applicant is ranked by the Residency Advisory Council members on a numeric scale, rating the application materials and the interview itself, and an overall score is determined from the average of the ratings.
- F. The rank list for the match is determined by scoring from interviews, and submitted to the Match process by the residency director.
- G. All of the material for application, interviews, resident evaluation, and ultimate ranking order are collated and filed by the residency director.
- H. The Residency Advisory Council documentation will be kept confidential and protected from the incoming residents.
